Description

Six pewter 'rum tot' cups encased in a teak box with inlaid brass anchor. To complete the package a 700ml bottle of genuine Pusser's Rum is included.

These items are from the estate of CPOETSSM Peter 'Bogie' Knights (RIP) and donated by his loving wife of over 50 years Tina Knights.

There is providence and history here, folks!! These pewter rum tot cups are believed to be a souvenir from the Black Tot Day when the Rum issue was abolished in Royal Navy in 1970. At the time Peter was undergoing Electrical training at HMS Collingwood, the Royal Naval Electrical College at Fareham in Hampshire. Peter participated in the now famous mock funeral procession complete with black coffin and accompanying drummers and pipers to mark the end of the rum ration. Up spirits!! The tot cups were recently restored by Mick Carew. Estimated value upwards of $350 for both items.

SUBCON2026 AUCTION ITEM #7 -ORION COFFEE TABLEDESCRIPTION

Approximately twenty years ago, Scott Turner (not a submariner) crafted this coffee table from teak salvaged from the battery tank gratings of ex HMAS Orion. Scott considered it a treasured possession but recently contacted the SAA offering to donate it to the association. He thought that it would be better placed within Submarine Community. Prior to handing it over to the SAA, Scott restored the piece. The photos show the Coffee table in it's pre refurbished state. We thank Scott for this wonderful gift.

Most Oberon class Submariners know the providence of this beautifully made piece of solid teak furniture, and as we you know - they are not making anymore!

The dimensions of the table FYI (mm): 1250L x 775W x 325H

Estimated value $950
